

Interview Agreement

MediaNOLA (<http://medianola.org>) is a website database for public access to histories and stories of local culture and production. It is maintained by Vicki Mayer in the Department of Communication at Tulane University. New Orleans Historical (<http://neworleanshistorical.org>) is a website for curating this content in the form of mobile tours. It is maintained via a partnership between Vicki Mayer and Michael Mizzell-Nelson, a professor of history in the University of New Orleans. Oral interviews will be made available on these sites for educational purposes only and in a way that is consistent with the mission of the Universities.

Your consent to participate in this interview is completely voluntary.

We, the undersigned, have read the above. The interviewer affirms that s/he has explained the MediaNOLA project, New Orleans Historical and the purpose of this interview. The interviewer and interviewee hereby give, grant, and assign all rights, title and interest, including copyright, to the University for use and reproduction on the two websites.
